7 November 2018

Dear Parents and Carers

British Film Institute A Level Study Day Friday 9 November: Class 13 Film Studies

Students are being offered the opportunity to extend their knowledge for their A Level exam in 2019. The films in this study day include two core films which the students have studied and will be examined on. There is only one day available for this event before the exams: Friday 9 November 2018.

Students will investigate how film form constructs meaning and informs spectators’ opinion of these characters. There will be a strong focus on the compelling narrative techniques used by auteur Alfred Hitchcock, the Master of Suspense, through comparisons of Vertigo (1958) with One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest (1975) and this study day is led by experts in film and Eduqas, our board of examination.

Students will meet at Watford Junction at 8.55am to travel with the trip leader, Ms Camilla Bourne. Students will travel to Euston by express train (9.05am), and from Euston to Waterloo by underground. Students will walk from Waterloo to the BFI Southbank complex, a walk of approximately 5-8 minutes. At the conclusion of the day, the journey will be reversed and the students should return to Watford Junction on or about 5pm. Students are travelling outside of rush hour. Students will travel home by themselves from Watford Junction.

Students will be responsible for their own travel costs and we suggest they have, and use an Oyster card which has sufficient funds for the trip loaded prior to arrival. Students should either bring their own lunch, or a small amount of money to purchase lunch from the BFI food outlets.

The cost for the event is £20 per students.

All 13 FS students have been consulted and indicated that they wish to participate. Please make payment and return the permission form.

Yours sincerely
