30 November 2018

Dear Parents and Carers

Text requirement KS4 English, Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde – December 2018

Year 10 will be studying Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, the Wordsworth edition in the last week of Autumn Term, 2018. Students are expected over the Christmas break to complete the reading of the novella and finish a short workbook to assist their independent reading. Students must bring the novella, Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, to class from week commencing 17 December 2018 when teaching of the novella begins.

Students, other than pupil premium, will need to purchase this text and the details of the edition is supplied below. No particular supplier is recommended by the School, however, today, School Depot have the book available for less than £2 (see https://schooldepot.co.uk) and the Book Depository for £2.50 which includes postage. (see https://www.bookdepository.com/)

All teaching and work issued will refer to this edition.

ISBN-10: 1853260614
Author: Stevenson, Robert Louis

To assist in the understanding of this 19th century novella it is recommended that you consider the purchase of a study guide. This is not compulsory but suggested. Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde: AQA GCSE 9-1 English Literature Text Guide (Collins GCSE 9-1 Snap Revision) Paperback is both a low-cost guide and, especially student friendly.

Please note for your records, the School is not supplying the text or purchasing copies for distribution to students other than as advised for current Pupil Premium students.

Yours sincerely

Ms C Bourne
Deputy Head of English
Head of KS4 English